

Sample Interview Questions for Paul Angone:

Author of All Groan Up: Searching For Self, Faith, and a Freaking Job! (Zondervan),
101 Secrets For Your Twenties (Moody), and creator of AllGroanUp.com

1. Why do you think many college graduates and twentysomethings are failing to launch into the real world?
2. What are some of the unique challenges facing the Millennial Generation that are different than generations before?
3. Do you think this generation has bought into any lies that are holding them back?
4. What are some crucial things parents and twentysomethings can do to help cushion the crash?
5. Why do you think this generation is struggling to become “adults?”
6. In this day and age, what is the rite of passage into adulthood?
7. What’s one simple and fun thing twentysomethings can do to get a better job? Or just A job period?
8. What are twentysomethings’ biggest fears?
9. What is the one thing twentysomethings are searching for more than anything else?
10. Is Gen X and Boomers helping or hurting Millennials?
11. What are three traits Millennials absolutely need to have to be successful in today’s world?
12. What’s the worst thing that can happen to a Millennial in their 20s?
13. Your first book is 101 Secrets For Your Twenties. Can you lightning round some of those secrets for us?
14. I know you’ve taken a pretty unique path to becoming a full-time author, speaker, and blogger.
Would you say you’re a good representation of what the “normal” life of a Millennial might look like?

